On Monday, October 7th, the Junior Camogie team travelled to Cork City to face St. Patricks. The match was played eight aside over three fifteen-minute halves.

In a tightly contested first half, both teams were locked at two points each. However, the dynamics shifted in the second half when St. Pats was reduced to seven players, moving the game to a seven-a-side format. Comeragh seized the opportunity, leveraging fresh substitutes to exploit St. Pats' fatigue. How do you feel about your recent big win?

Happy and relieved to finally have won the cup after losing 10 county finals!

What does it mean to you and the team?

It means everything to us – we've put so much work into training the last 10 years and every year we have been getting closer. We have played football together since we were young and have always dreamed of lifting the senior cup. We never gave up and believed in each other. Football is a huge part of the Comeragh Rangers community and everyone in the parish is delighted for us!

The Shona Shine Festival

Written By: Kayla Howe

Ty girls went out to the Shine festival. The day was filled with many friends and great speakers. We arrived at the SETU campus and were greeted by happy Shona Project helpers. We took a group photo and were sent into the hall. All the girls from all the schools. Each of the girls got bracelets from the stands around and had an exciting day. I would say that this was such an amazing experience and it really made me feel included. Each school was special and everyone got a gift bag and sunglasses. This was definitely one of my highlights of TY to date.
